

Winter season

Down:

1. where wood is burned for heat
2. a severe storm with high winds
3. the twelfth month of the year and the first month of winter in the northern hemisphere
5. wood that is burned as fuel
6. an outer garment to wear for warmth that is fastened down the front
9. shake slightly and uncontrollably as a result of being cold
11. two long wooden boards that are used for snow transportation
13. make or become liquid by warming or heating

Across:

4. a large floating mass of ice detached from a glacier
7. to spend the winter in a dormant state
8. a large piece of fabric used as a covering for warmth
10. hand protection with separate parts for fingers and thumbs
12. a vertical channel which conducts smoke from a fire through the roof
14. a tool that is used to remove snow and clear paths

Winter season

Down:

1. where wood is burned for heat
2. a severe storm with high winds
3. the twelfth month of the year and the first month of winter in the northern hemisphere
5. wood that is burned as fuel
6. an outer garment to wear for warmth that is fastened down the front
9. shake slightly and uncontrollably as a result of being cold
11. two long wooden boards that are used for snow transportation
13. make or become liquid by warming or heating

Across:

4. a large floating mass of ice detached from a glacier
7. to spend the winter in a dormant state
8. a large piece of fabric used as a covering for warmth
10. hand protection with separate parts for fingers and thumbs
12. a vertical channel which conducts smoke from a fire through the roof
14. a tool that is used to remove snow and clear paths

